

Thank you for your interest in Provincetown, Massachusetts.

It is a special inclusive place where we think everyone can find both comfort and excitement. Come to Provincetown to experience what you love or what you'd love to try for the first time. Located on the tip of Cape Cod, 60 miles out to sea, Provincetown boasts beautiful beaches, top-rated restaurants, art galleries and charming shops. A top LGBTQ destination, this open-minded community celebrates individuality and freedom of expression. Provincetown has a rich creative history and is home to the oldest continuous art colonies in the country. The diverse population of artists, sailors, fisherman, authors, and more, makes Provincetown unique. From Carnival in August to Women's Week in October and First Light at year's end, Provincetown is thriving 365 days of the year.

Looking forward into 2020, we are hoping to share our vision of Provincetown as one of the most inclusive, fun, and dynamic destinations in New England.

For media inquiries contact ConranPR at (212) 447-1010 or at info@conranpr.com.

Provincetown
You belong here.

CAPE COD, MASSACHUSETTS

WWW.PTOWNTOURISM.COM

Quick facts about Provincetown:

- The Pilgrims first landed in Provincetown and The Mayflower Compact was drawn and signed in Provincetown Harbor.
- The world-class beaches of Provincetown include Race Point and Herring Cove were protected by President John F. Kennedy as the National Seashore in 1961.
- Eugene O'Neill wrote Anna Christie and The Hairy Ape in a Dune Shack in Provincetown
- O'Neill's first play, Bound East for Cardiff, was performed in 1916 on a wharf in Provincetown Harbor.
- Pulitzer Prize winner Susan Glaspell and husband George Cram "Jig" Cook were amongst the founders of the world renowned Provincetown Players.
- The National Register of Historic Places has named eight buildings and two districts: the Provincetown Historic District and Dune Shacks which are part of the National Seashore.
- John Waters has written all of his books and many of his movies in Provincetown.
- Anthony Bourdain began his career cooking in Provincetown.
- Provincetown was the source for many of the poems written by resident American poet Mary Oliver.
- Carnival draws nearly 90,000 people to Provincetown each year.
- The Center for Coastal Studies dedicated to marine disentanglement displays the articulated skeleton of a 40' whale named Spinnaker.
- The Provincetown International Film Festival celebrates the achievements of emerging and acclaimed filmmakers creating provocative films "on the edge."
- The Provincetown Art Museum embodies the work and spirit of America's Oldest Art colony with relevant and inspired art in all branches of the fine arts.
- Provincetown boasts over 60 galleries and 200 shops, many selling locally made handcrafted items.
- Provincetown Harbor is a naturally deep basin and docks and wharfs can accommodate 130' vessels.

Provincetown
You belong here.

CAPE COD, MASSACHUSETTS

WWW.PTOWNTOURISM.COM

Scenes from Provincetown.

Provincetown

You belong here.

CAPE COD, MASSACHUSETTS

WWW.PTOWNTOURISM.COM

Facebook: Provincetown | Twitter: @PtownTourism | YouTube: PtownTourism's channel | Instagram: Ptowntourism, #MyPtown